The Ladies at Black Jack Demolish
Two Alleged Blind Tigers.

Black Jack, Texas, Feb. 6.—Last Tuesday the ladies of the town collected on two parties who it was reported were selling whisky and mal-lone and asked them to quit the business.

This afternoon about 3 o'clock a large body of ladies gathered at the Baptist church and from there proceeded to town. Walking into the houses where the whisky was supposed to be sold, they began the work of destruction with axes.

because the more enlightened and to all in the more enlightened moments inequality is irksome and offensive. You can have no pleasure of the man you look up to or the man you look down on. The thing is impossible. Your soul is always seeking the level of your compan-ion's, and society formulates and expresses this instinctive desire for equality. The prince, the distinguished person, if he is a gentleman, will do his best to efface your difference when he meets you in society, and it will be your fault or your misfortune if you cannot let him do so. He will not ask you to be a snob or a toady. Inequality bores him; he is glad to get rid of it, and this is the mood of all good society. The better society is the more it shuns formality and seeks ease and freedom. The aristocrats, the highest equals, call each other by their first names, their nicknames, when they are by themselves as the plebeians do.—"Equality as the Basis of Good Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you pur-
which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed.
If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

An Order Expediting Mails Across the Border.

San Antonio Express.

During a recent trip to Mexico, Superintendent O. L. Teach-out of the railway mail service for this district, effected a treaty with the Mexican officials regarding the postal service between the two countries, which will prove of immense benefit to the business of the United States.

The dispatching of mails into Mexico has been far from satisfactory for some time, owing to the fact that they were held on the border for twenty four hours for purposes of inspection and making assessments on dutiable matter. Also the manner in which mail was sent from that country to this. The Mexican postal officials have been sacking all mail regardless of territory in one pouch, leaving it to the postal clerks of this country to make the proper distribution.

The great bulk of the mail matter sent to Mexico goes through Nuevo Laredo, and is handled at that postoffice. In order to partly expedite the delivery of mail matter to Mexico, the postal clerks on the Laredo run have been making separate pouches to the different important cities, throwing packages that may contain du-tiable matter in pouches thus marked. But this arrangement has proven far from satisfactory.

THE ALASKAN BOUNDARY.

Honorable Warren Truitt Expresses His Opinion.

Seattle, Wash., January 3.— In discussing the Alaska boundary question, Hon. Warren Truitt, retiring United States Judge of Alaska, having turned over his office to his successor, Hon. A. Delaney, said:

"The unanimous opinion on the boundary question is that the line should stay right where it is. The people do not want England's contention granted, for it would take some of the best of Southwestern Alaska and control the Yukon trade.
The people are opposed to any more of England's map-making and they don't want arbitration, for they consider there is nothing to arbitrate. They have seen enough arbitration in the Behring Sea controversy, in which England got all she desired. The line is where it has been conceded for years, but they recognize the contention.

"The message of President Cleveland on the Venezuelan question is taken to have some bearing on the Alaskan boundary dispute. It is received with favor and there is no division with us on either case.

"The Alaskan Indians, who are lovers of the stars and brilliant complexion of youth is preserved, the skin becoming smooth and of ivory texture, and free from all eruptions, pimples, freckles, and other unsightly and disagreeable effects.

A Suggestion. Call upon your druggist and in price of the article in which you are accustomed, order a package of Camelline. Read and note the recommendation of Dr. John Terry, John Hedding and others, artists of world wide fame; note the unqualified endorsement of celebrated physicians and chemists. Use it according to directions and compare results.

Camelline is invaluable, in preventing or removing the disagreeable effects of sun burn, poison ivy, etc.
Prepared in liquid form in pure white and in powder in white, attractive and fresh color.
